Buses from Nørreport Station

In order to get to the DMSC offices via bus you need to take either bus 6A or bus 42 from Nørreport Station and get off at the Arresøgade stop on Tagensvej. The buses leave every 3-8 minutes and take about 8 - 15 minutes to get to the Arresøgade stop depending on traffic. Unfortunately the bus stops at Nørreport Station are not numbered/labeled however the departure stop for both of the buses above is the same and is located next to the traffic lights at the intersection of Nørre Voldgade and Gothersgade. A picture of the relevant bus stop is shown in the PDF file at the bottom of the page.

From Copenhagen Airport

You can catch the Metro (M) or Øresund trains from Copenhagen Airport to Nørreport Station and from there follow the directions to DMSC from Nørreport Station given above.

From Sweden (Lund)

You can catch any Øresund train going to Copenhagen. They all stop at Nørreport Station. For directions from Nørreport Station to the DMSC, see above.

From Copenhagen Central Station

You can catch any S train from platform 9 or 10 to Nørreport Station. All of the S trains stop at Nørreport Station. For directions from Nørreport to the DMSC, see above.

From Østerport Station

There is no direct public transport from Østerport Station to the DMSC offices. You can take an Øresund, DSB or S train from Østerport Station to Nørreport Station and then follow the directions above from Nørreport Station. Alternatively you can take a taxi from Østerport Station.
